

Marie Geneviève Pawlak

Speaker & Game Designer

As the Founder and CEO of Prime Alchemy, Marie is a tour de force in helping teams in crisis build organizational health and successfully navigate both sides of the company's operations. She specializes in team leadership, employee experience, and virtual team processes through experiential learning. Marie's mission is to inspire better workplaces so that everyone goes home whole to the people they love. Her talks are witty, interactive, and meaningful, covering a range of topics from creating productive meetings to the power of kindness in leadership.
